

Direct Debit Bank (LSV) or Post Office (DD)

Never again transfer money yourself or modify standing orders – have your premiums debited directly via the bank with LSV or the post office with DD.

More time for the important things in life. When you have your premiums debited via LSV or DD, you have no hassles at all, none in terms of time or money.

No hassles

No effort – Premiums are automatically debited and adjusted in the event of changes

No risks

Full control – Possibility to object to charges within 30 days

No costs

Save on bank or postal fees – LSV and DD are free

Direct Debit

Bank (LSV) or Post Office (DD)

You would like to pay your premiums without effort and paper invoices? Then use the direct debit procedure with either LSV or DD. To apply, please complete the attached form.

Your advantages and important information at a glance

- No more paper invoices (please continue to pay any paper invoices already received with the pay-in slip).
- Premiums are always debited on the last work day of the month.
- You may object in writing to a debit within 30 days at your bank or post office.
- Premiums are refunded over the same bank or postal account.
- If a debit cannot be executed, you will receive a notice from CONCORDIA including a pay-in slip.
- Reductions or increases in premiums are automatically considered with the debiting.

Just register

Please send the completed and signed LSV or DD form to CONCORDIA Representation in Liechtenstein in the enclosed, pre-stamped envelope.

If you have any questions, please contact CONCORDIA Representation in Liechtenstein.